- (3) Must not be less than 18 years and more than 27 years of age on the date of his appointment:

Provided further that minimum and maximum age limits as prescribed may be relaxed, in pursuance of the instructions issued by the Government from time to time.

6. Appointments to the service shall be made by the appointing authority on the recommendations of the D. P. C. as may be constituted by the Government from time to time.

7. Service Rules.—The members of the service will be governed by the service rules framed/adopted by the State Government from time to time.

8. Leave Retirement and Pension.—In respect of leave, retirement and pension, the members of the service will be governed by the rules framed/adopted by the State Government from time to time.

9. Discipline and penalty.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeal the services shall be governed by the rules adopted/framed by the State Government from time to time.

10. Probation of members.—(1) Persons appointed to the service shall remain on probation for a period of two years:

Provided that:—

- (a) any period, after such appointment, spent on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation;
- (b) in the case of an appointment by transfer, any period of work in equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to the service may, at the discretion of the appointing authority be allowed to count towards the period of probation; and
- (c) any period of officiating appointment to the service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no person who has officiated shall, on the completion of the prescribed period of probation, be entitled to be confirmed unless he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the work or conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory, it may:—

- (a) if such person is recruited by direct appointment, dispense with his service; and
- (b) if such person is recruited, otherwise—
 - (i) revert him to his former post, or

- (ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of the previous appointment permit.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person the appointing authority may—

- (a) (i) if his work and conduct has in its opinion been satisfactory confirm such person against a permanent; or
- (ii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily if there is no permanent vacancy, or
- (b) if his work or conduct has not been, in its opinion satisfactory—

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule—persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of this rule shall be considered to be permanent officers in the scale.

(2) subject to the provision of paragraph (3) below, permanent, officers shall be ranked senior to the persons who are officiating in that scale.

(3) Direct Recruitment.—The relevant seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment, or recommendations of the selecting authority, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order, different than the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the orders of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period and shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority, if the fact of his joining later is caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing and if the appointing authority is satisfied that was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different than the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate list in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list strictly on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit and shall arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated form of merit which will determine the seniority of persons on promotions to the higher grades.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotee.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies reserved for direct recruitments and promotion respectively in these rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer in the service from other departments of State Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

(7) Explanatory Memorandum.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. The promotions are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is superseded by a junior, such person shall not if he is subsequently found suitable and promotee take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him.

(8) Direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below the promotees. If for any reasons, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grades, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose or ensuring the promotion referred to below.

12. Interpretations.—If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Government.

13. Powers to relax.—Where the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of these rules with respect to any class or category of service person or post.

14. Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall effect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the order issued by the State Government from time to time in this regard.

PART II—CONSTITUTION OF THE SERVICE AND GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR APPOINTMENT

3. The Service shall consist of such number of posts whether permanent or temporary, or each grade specified in Appendix 'A' as the Government may, from time to time determine. Recruitment/promotion to this service shall be made by the Appointing Authority, on the recommendations of the Commission or Departmental Promotion Committee as the case may be. The rates of pay may be changed by the Government from time to time as the Government may order.

4. Nationality, eligibility and age etc.—(1) A candidate for appointment to any post in the service must be—

- (a) A citizen of India, or
- (b) A subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) A subject of Nepal, or
- (d) A person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that if he/she belongs to category (c) or (d) he/she must be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India:

Provided further that if he/she belongs to category (d) the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment beyond which he/she can be retained in service only if he/she has become a citizen of India.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to an examination or interview and he/she may also provisionally be appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him/her by the Government.

(II) Unless he/she is already in Government service must produce—

- (i) a certificate of good moral character from the Principal Academic Officer of his/her University College or School or from the Head of the educational or Technical Institution last attended.
- (ii) a certificate of his/her good moral character from a Gazetted Officer of the Central or a State Government or a Member of Parliament or State Legislatures or from some respectable and trustworthy person, who can certify from personal knowledge the identity of the applicant and the correctness of the particulars furnished by him.
- (iii) A medical certificate as required by the Service Rules applicable to the other service, or the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or may be adopted by the State Government from time to time.
- (iv) declaration to the effect that he has not more than one living wife.
- (v) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living marries in case in which such marriage is void by reasons of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to service.
- (b) No female candidate, who has married a person having already a wife living shall be eligible for appointment.

N.B.—Appointment/recruitment of a person to the service shall be subject to his furnishing an affidavit to the effect that he has only one wife or in the case of a female that she has not married a man having already a living wife:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of the rule in clause (v) above subject to the observance of the Government instructions in this behalf.

(III) The minimum and maximum age limits have been shown in the Appendix 'A'.

5. Educational qualifications, method of recruitment and reservations.—The educational qualifications and methods of recruitment are indicated in the statement appended at Appendix 'A'.

6. Reservations.—Such percentage of posts as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time shall be reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Released Emergency Commissioned Officer/ex-servicemen, subject to the minimum qualifications being satisfied by them.

7. Probation of Members of Service.—Members of the service, who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—(i) Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member, who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the prescribed Probationary period be confirmed until he/she is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his/her period of probation is in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him/her to former post if he/she has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority may confirm such member in his/her appointment subject to availability of a permanent post or if his/her work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his/her services, or revert him/her to his/her former post, if he/she has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extensions, if any, shall not exceed 4 years.

Seniority of Member of service.—(1) Persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation.—(a) For the purpose of these rules, persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from the date earlier than the issue of these rules.

(b) Persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent members of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of paragraph (3) below, permanent members of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruitee.—Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the selecting authority persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

(i) Provided that the persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of the merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit;

(ii) Provided further that a person who does not join within the prescribed period shall lose his/her seniority, according to the selection and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

(iii) Provided further that he/she shall not lose his/her seniority, if the fact of his/her joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his/her control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing, the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade an inter se seniority of all eligible persons shall be arranged in a separate list in the order of their date of appointment in their respective grades. Thereafter the duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee or the other selecting/recommending authority shall select persons for promotion from this list and draw up a merit list which will determine the seniority of persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and or promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies reserved for direct recruits and promotees respectively.

(6) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the service from the subordinate offices or the Central Government or other Departments of the State Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer. In case of Officials transferred from other departments etc., the previous services will not count for purposes of seniority.

(7) Explanatory memorandum.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee or the Commission the Seniority of such promotees shall be in order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee or Commission. Where promotions are made on basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him..

(8) A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the recruitment rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees.

Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below promotee. If for any reasons a direct recruit or a promotee cease to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

9. Training and examination etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, for any class of posts.

10. Liability to transfer.—Every member of the services shall be liable to transfer anywhere within Himachal Pradesh.

11. Leave and pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other cognate matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by the service rules, applicable to the other service of the State of Himachal Pradesh which are in force or as may be adopted by the State Government from time to time, unless one has exercised option,
